

Cause Effective is looking for Affiliate Consultants to join our growing organization!

Affiliate Consultants work with us as project-based employees and deliver nonprofit consulting services, workshops, and training. The Affiliate will lead these types of engagements and will also contribute to our team's collective knowledge. The position requires a strategic mindset, diplomacy, and strong organizational skills. Our work focuses on fundraising planning, strategic communications, board governance, and organizational development. We infuse DEI values and increasingly see that work reflected in board fundraising, executive transitions, leadership coaching, and implementation support. For these reasons, we are looking for senior-level nonprofit professionals with at least two years of consulting experience.

We're an organization that offers a variety of work and flexibility. Cause Effective serves over 1,000 nonprofit leaders annually; leaders in their fields and communities: The Bronx Defenders, Higher Heights for America, New York Immigration Coalition, and Summer Search. We continue to evolve our work as we celebrate our 40th Anniversary and will end 2023 with a new Executive Director. Today, we deliver advisory services to advance the sector with a first-of-its-kind Preparing the Next Generation initiative, which provides professional development and leadership coaching to mid- and senior-level fundraising professionals of color.

Affiliate consultants are paid on a project basis, and typical arrangements range from $3,000 to $15,000. If you're interested in this opportunity, please email us at jobs@causeeffective.org, with your resume and a cover letter containing:

- A brief statement of why you'd be a great addition to our team
- Client roster (a sampling of clients and subsectors served)
- An overview of your consulting approach/philosophy
- A brief description of success as defined by the client
